Hi Amy,

How are things up Pennsylvania way? What would you charge to send me one lonely peg? By the time we got the timber frame porch up, the pegs were hard to find and we came up one short.

We are in the house but work is still going on--mostly outside. The timber frame in the great room is outstanding and we get all kinds of positive comments from people who have seen it. I haven't forgotten my promise to send up some pictures. Right now, things are hard to find since we still have the better part of a rented boat storage shed to unpack. Other than finding Ed to do the house, my greatest accomplish was finding you guys on the web.

Take care.

Larry
